Aadaraneeya ,

Sub: Request for being partner in National Arogya Fair 2018 & International Conference

JIGNASA 2018 is blossoming at the Central University Ground in Bengaluru, Karnataka with all its grandeur! This time, based on the requests from Ayurveda, Yoga, Unani and Siddha student community across India and students and supporters from many parts of the world, we have decided to organize "National Arogya Fair 2018" and International Conference on "Conglomeration of Health Traditions in Bharatavarsha" and as part of JIGNASA 2018 organized by Tarunya Shikshana Seva Trust and supported by Akhil Bharathiya Vidyarthi Parishad at Central University Ground, Bengaluru, Karnataka, Bharata from 5-9 December 2018.

Tarunya Sikshana Seva Trust (TSST) is a Registered Trust based in Bengaluru, Karnataka. TSST initiated 'JIGNASA', a common platform to address everything related to AYUSH systems particularly AYUSH education in the country. From 2011 onwards, 'JIGNASA' is organizing various programmes for the students of AYUSH from this standpoint. JIGNASA is our humble effort to enlighten and encourage the students of AYUSH to look into our great Sastras in particular. TSST had organized workshops and seminars related to "Restructuring Ayurveda Education" in many colleges in Karnataka with an aim to revamp and restructure Ayurveda education system and frame an ideal policy for Ayurveda education in the country. To take this dialogue process forward, TSST organized JIGNASA DARSHAN 2017 – National Seminar and Brainstorming on reforms in Ayurveda Education and Training on 21-22 September, 2017 at Bengaluru with an aim to develop a comprehensive report/vision document for submitting to the Govt. of India for formulating policies for quality Ayurveda education in the country. The National Seminar and Brainstorming was a huge success with over 250 delegates including Chancellors, Vice-chancellors, Principals, Professors, Students, Researchers, Policy makers, Ayurveda practitioners, intellectuals and representatives from the Ayurveda Industry participating in the function. We intend to take this initiative forward in a big way with the participation of the people from all over India and abroad by conducting JIGNASA 2018.

JIGNASA 2018 will have series of Seminars & Workshops conducted on various topics related to AYUSH in every college possible across India and culminate with a weeklong 'National AROGYA Fair 2018 and a three day International Conference on 'Conglomeration of Health Traditions in Bharatavarsha' at Bengaluru, Karnataka scheduled from 5-9 December 2018 for the medical students and researchers from across the world to explore and experience the diversity of health and healing traditions in entire Bharatavarsha.

Apart from this, Specialty clinics, Satsang, Student exchange programmes, Samskrta for Ayurveda, AYUSH alumni meet, Acharya vandanam, AYUSH intellectual conclaves, Authentic Yoga, Friends of AYUSH and many more unique events will be part of this mega meet. The technical papers/posters in the conference and exhibition stalls of the event will be evaluated by experts in the field and the best will be rewarded. More than 2000 delegates are expected to participate in this conference along with masters of excellence and experts in the field of traditional medicine from India and abroad. The programme will also be attended, observed, encouraged and guided by experts in the respective fields, institutes, academicians, entrepreneurs, R&D institutions and various Government and private agencies. The seminar technical papers/posters and exhibition stalls in the event will be evaluated by experts in the field and the best will be rewarded. This three day conference will bring together some of the best Acharyas, Academicians, Researchers, Scientists, Entrepreneurs, Industrialists, etc., from all over India and abroad. It will be a great opportunity for the students to meet and interact with some of the best in the field of Ayurveda, Siddha and Yoga in particular.

It is a dream event that, we at the TSST would like to offer as a tribute to our great nation, Bharatha, the wisest nation in the world that has contributed wealth of wisdom and knowledge unparalleled to the humanity in this planet. The continuous flow of wisdom down the ages through the seers of yore in the form of Ayurveda, Siddha, Yoga, Jyothisha, Tantra, etc., has to be kept alive, imbibed and practiced in its pure form for the welfare of nature and its inhabitants as a whole based on dharma. We, at the TSST pledge to keep our immaculate wealth of wisdom alive for posterity. Yes, we are firm in our commitment to take this wealth of wisdom and knowledge to every nook and corner of this great nation and beyond in its pure and authentic form. It is a great privilege and honour for us to embark on a noble venture of this magnitude with utmost sincerity and dedication to our motherland, Bharata.
