Respected Sir /Madam,

It is for your information that we are running Post Graduate Diploma in Nutrition and Dietetics in our college since 2007. Our alumni are working as successful Dieticians in Hospitals and Health Centres in India and abroad.

Graduates with B.Sc. Medical, B.Sc Medical with Clinical Nutrition and Dietetics (Vocational) and B.sc Home Science and BAMS are eligible (as per Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar). You can guide your students to join PG Diploma in Nutrition and Dietetics as it will give them a professional edge. From this session boys can also join the program in our college.

Hostel facility is also available in the college for girls. Hoping for a favourable response.

With regards

Sarita Verma
